Read & Reflect

1. Read Psalm 8, paying attention to the psalmist's descriptions of God and of humankind.
 - What is the focus of this psalm, God's infinite character or humankind's finite existence?
 - Does this psalm remind you of other Scripture passages? Which ones?

2. How do you think of God?

Silent and removed from creation

Big and intimidating

An unexplainable presence

A tangible God interacting with me daily

A close friend who knows my every thought

3. What do you think of when you hear the word 'Infinity'?

4. How have you put your own limits on God, His character, or His interaction with creation?

5. Why did God choose humankind to be his own? When did he choose to dwell in and among us?

6. What is an area in your life where you've experienced God's infinity?

7. What is an area in your life where you can pour out God's infinity to people around you?

Pray:

- Praise God for
 - His infinite nature using the words of Revelation 1:8, Psalm 147:5, Isaiah 55:8-9, or Romans 11:33
 - His decision to care, love, and remember humankind, as finite as we are
 - How He placed himself in our hearts so we can extend his infinite nature to others through love.
- Humbly submit to God all the complexity of knowing him, and honor him for his greatness.
