

Quest for God

I AM - Exodus 3:1-14

Read & Reflect

1. Read Exodus 3:1-14
2. What parts of the story seem outlandish (incomprehensible, even impossible)? What kind of response does that draw from you?
3. What do you suppose Moses' reaction was to the burning bush encounter?
 This is weird This is scary
 This is silly This is wonderful

4. What's been your "burning bush experience?" What kind of life-experience have you had that, as you look back on it, was a life-changing encounter with God?
5. What are some ways in which you have come to know God? What makes knowing God impossible? What things can you say about "who God is"?
6. How would you characterize your "Quest for God"?
 I'm too busy I'm waiting I'm searching
 I'm thirsty I'm done _____
7. Are there questions about God that seem unanswerable? What might they be?

Pray:

- Praise God for some of the ways that he has revealed himself.
- Pray for a hunger and thirst for knowing God and how he calls you to live (work) with him.
