3. Does this passage change your thinking in any way concerning your views on what authentic worship is?
4. What does it mean to fight for justice in your own life? What areas of your life do you need to show God's radical love in?
5. What does being 'awake' mean to you?
6. The book says "worship is conditioned by the quality of the ethical life of those who participate". What does that mean to you? Why is it important?

Pray

- ✝ That the Lord will push us to step outside our comfort zones so that we can fully encounter God.
- ✝ That we will strive seek justice in all areas of our lives
- ✝ That our Lord will bless you with anger at the way things are and courage is see they do not stay the same.
