FOLLOW MY LEAD: ... Out of the Tomb

Read/Reflect

1. Read Mark 16:1-8.
2. How do you assess Mark's account of the resurrection story?
 - He should have finished with a better ending, I thought the resurrection was joyful,
 - He presents the story with intrigue, I want to investigate more,
 - Mark didn't know what to do with the resurrection, and it raises doubts for me,
 - Other: _____

Explore

3. What do you think of Jesus' resurrection?
 - It's troubling for me
 - I just accept it and believe
 - I'm staking my life on it
 - I doubt and believe
 - It changes everything, it changes me
 - Other: _____
4. Where in your life does the light of resurrection yet need to be revealed?
 - A specific regret
 - Lingering grief
 - Some old bitterness
 - Indifference to misery
 - Anxiety and worry
 - Other: _____
5. Is there something that has convinced you of the truth of Jesus' resurrection?
6. How has the truth of Jesus' resurrection helped you to live through difficult times? How does it help you to live for Jesus – perhaps even when all is well with your life?

Pray

- Praise God for his great salvation through the resurrection of our Saviour, Jesus; pray using I Peter 1:3-8 as inspiration and a guide.
- Commit to God the things you've identified in question 4 above, asking God to "roll the stone away" and reveal the hope and joy of resurrection.
