LOVE IN ACTION

Meeting People Where They Are

Read/Reflect

1. What actions of Jesus in this story would have been seen by his contemporaries as odd or wrong?
2. In this story, what does Jesus offer her? How does it differ from the water that the woman has been drawing from the well?
3. Why do you think the woman changes the subject when Jesus told her about her personal life?

Explore

4. How might following Jesus lead us to live in ways that others might find odd or unconventional (and maybe even wrong)?
5. When we meet people where they are, what do we offer them? How would you introduce to them “living water”?
6. What does it mean to be a Christian witness in this world? What do you think is the best “posture” to take as a Christian witness today?

Pray

- Ask God for opportunities to meet people where they are. Consider how you could be open to those opportunities. Share with the group how you would go about seizing the opportunities that God gives to you to meet people where they are.
